SPEAKERS

Gail Shaffer Blankenau

Gail Blankenau is a professional genealogist, speaker and author, specializing in German genealogy, land records and lineage research. She first became interested in family history by looking for treasures in the attic when she was growing up.

Topics she will talk on:

- Rich resources for the Poor Ancestor
- Tumbleweeds in the Window – Women Homesteaders and Genealogy

Gary Clark

Gary offers fun, interesting, and educational presentations covering vintage photographs back to the 1800s, and historical writing for genealogists and family historians. These offerings have been developed during 25 years of research into topics for genealogical and historical applications.

Topics he will talk on:

- Photo & Document Restoration—What is possible?
- 19th Century Photographs—identify and dating photographs from 1860-1900
